

DONATE YOUR ZAKAT TO YOUR FAMILY

THE MZFF IS ALWAYS LOOKING FOR DONORS TO HELP BOLSTER THE FUNDS available to it. If you are an existing donor, you may request a copy of the audited accounts at any time by contacting a member of the Board of Directors, whose names can be found on <https://mzff.org>.

If you are interested in donating to the MZFF, you may send in funds via cheque (made out to Zia Abdus Sami Siddiqui), or via a family member in Pakistan. The MZFF accepts all amounts, regardless of size. Donations are made at the beginning of Ramazan each year. If you would prefer to make a wire transfer directly to our bank account, please contact us for account details:

ABOUT THE FUND

ESTABLISHED IN 2005 BY MRS. SHAHNAZ QUADRI, THE MAKHDUM ZAADGAN Family Fund (MZFF) has been instrumental in helping to alleviate the financial burden of those family members in Pakistan who are unable to support themselves. This organisation was created because, while there may be many amongst us who are struggling in their daily lives, acquiring zakat is a difficult and sometimes embarrassing prospect.

Funds for the MZFF are collected solely from within the family and, consequently are distributed solely within the family.

Thus far, the MZFF has a roster of recipients who receive a monthly stipend, and which includes several youngsters whose education is paid for by the MZFF. The amounts distributed vary, depending upon need, though the MZFF Board of Directors meets regularly to evaluate that need. MZFF also provides long-term Qarz-e-Hasna loans to family members, particularly to students, or to family members who are unable to find employment.

Names of all recipients, including those who have received Qarz-e-Hasna, are kept anonymous. The Fund's accounts are audited annually by Mr. Abdul Hai Fareedi.

The MZFF's sole purpose is the equitable and anonymous distribution of zakat to deserving individuals within the Makhdum Zaadgan family.
